FINANCIAL CONDITION GRAVE AT UNIVERSITY

BOND ISSUE AND MILLAGE TAX ARE DISCUSSED

Prof. F. C. Scheuch Says Failure to Pass Two Amendments Will Cut Down Work Here.

"We're in the hole right now, and if we open up next year with the financial situation still unsatisfactory it will mean the cutting down of the student body, the faculty, and the removal of some of the departments," said Professor F. C. Scheuch at a special convocation Monday morning to further plans for the students' part in the bond issue and the millage tax campaign for the Greater University of Montana.

Other speakers on the program were Mac Gault, president of the Student Council; C. W. Leaphart, chairman of the faculty committee in the campaign and dean of the school of law; and Henry Lamb, chairman of the student committee on the bond issue. President E. O. Sisson introduced the speakers.

Students from each county in the state have been appointed to have charge of the publicity campaign in their county, according to Mr. Lamb. These chairmen will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in convocation hall to receive definite instructions.

Wednesday will be a tag day. Each University student will be taxed a dollar in order to raise money to carry on the campaign for signers of the petitions, according to Chairman Lamb.

Miss Wilson, speaking for the students, said there were five reasons why the students of Montana should particularly support the measure. "First, we are students of Montana; Second, it is most vital to us; third, we are citizens of Montana; fourth, we are the future alumni of Montana; and finally, we owe something to the state." U FINANCE GIVEN BIG BOOST BY GLEE CLUB

Tour Was Not Financial Success; Expect to Clear Deficit on Missoula Concert.

"The Glee club did a great deal for the University millage tax and bond issue and was a success from every standpoint except financially. We expect to make expenses from the proceeds of the Missoula concert though," said William Jameson, manager of the University Glee club. The club returned Sunday from a two weeks tour of the state. They will give a concert at the Liberty theater Friday, April 9.

"The first part of the trip was a great success, but the latter part did not come up to expectations, because of the cold weather. The best crowd we had on the entire trip was at Red Lodge," continued Mr. Jameson.

DeLoss Smith, director of the club, says that this year's club is the best the University has ever produced. Good sized crowds attended every concert and entertained the members of the club at a dance or banquet afterwards.

On the trip the club sang in Butte, Anaconda, Billings, Livingston, Big Timber, Red Lodge, Hardin, Lavinia, Roundup, Lewistown, Great Falls, Geraldine, Helena and Deer Lodge. They will go to Ronan April 15; Polson, April 16; and Kalispell April 17.

DEMAND FOR FORESTRY MEN EXCEEDS SUPPLY

Most of Ranger Students Have Left for Positions in Various National Forests.

The demand for men for summer jobs on the national forests far exceeds the supply, according to Dean Dorr Skeels. Most of the ranger students have left for positions on various national forests throughout the west.

"Regular forestry students are all lined up for jobs during this summer, chiefly with forest service," Mr. Skeels added. "Requests are coming in constantly from forest headquarters in various states for forestry students to handle such summer jobs as surveying, timber cruising, telephone line work, livestock range management, and fire-guarding."

Of the former ranger students from whom Dean Skeels has received word, R. M. Tuttle has returned to the Angeles national forest in California, where he is a ranger; Bernard A. Hendricks has returned to his job as forest ranger on the Lincoln national forest in New Mexico; W. A. Robison is a forest ranger on the Black Hills national forest in South Dakota; Hubert D. Bushey has gone to the Kootenai national forest as a forest guard and will probably be made a ranger next fall. L. C. Regan, C. A. Reilly and A. Kunkel are cruising timber near Clinton, Montana, about 25 miles east of here, for Mr. Skeels, who has a contract to cruise a large tract of timber there.

Several of the men have stayed to complete a little extra work in various forestry subjects and will leave, probably, at the end of the week, Mr. Skeels said. Troy Fox will go to St. Joseph national forest and Oscar R. Levin leaves for Minnesota national forest. Both are rangers. Ed F. Butler will leave soon for the Absaroka National forest, near Livingston, where he will be employed as a forest guard. He will probably be made a ranger after passing the civil service examination next fall.

IMPORTANT MEETING

An important meeting of the Town Girls' league will be held Wednesday afternoon at o'clock in the women's rest room to discuss plans for a party or hike for all University girls.

HONOR ROLL STUDENTS ANNOUNCED BY OFFICE

Twelve Credits Above C, None Below Make Eligibility to List for Winter Quarter.

The registrar's office has announced the honor roll students for the winter quarter. To make the honor roll students must make grades not lower than "B" in at least twelve credits, and must make no grade lower than "C."

Courses in which a plus grade is given are disregarded. An "incomplete" in any subject is ineligible for the honor roll. A deduction of credit for absences is considered a scholarship delinquency equivalent to a failure.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR ABER DAY ANNOUNCED

APPOINTMENTS MADE BY MANAGER PATTERSON

Services in Honor of Founder to Be Held in the Morning.

"The final plans for Aber day have been completed," says Manager John Patterson.

Buglers will blow assembly at 11:30 o'clock Thursday morning and the students will gather in front of Main hall, where services will be held in memory of Daddy Aber, professor in Latin and Greek in the University until his death in 1919. Mac Gault has been appointed chairman of the services. Talks will be given by Professor J. P. Rowe of the geology department, Dean A. L. Stone of the school of journalism, and Stewart McHaffie, a post graduate of the University on personal remembrances. The girls' glee club will end the services by singing Daddy Aber's favorite song.

The hours 8:00 to 10:30 have been obtained for a dance in the gymnasium in the evening.

Men are to report at their scheduled places by 8 o'clock Thursday morning. Those men who are to work on the bleachers must furnish their own hammers.

The bosses of the various crews must obtain their tools from Harold Whistler at the garage in back of the forestry building.

The women of the University must report to the chairman of their committee not later than Wednesday noon where they will receive further instructions. All co-eds whose names do not appear on the list should report to Florence Faust for the assignment of their hours at sewing on the costumes for the May fete.

Following is a complete list of the assignments for Aber Day:

COUNCIL FAVORS TUB FOR ABER VIOLATORS

Stand Taken by Student Leaders to Be Presented to Faculty.

That Aber day slackers should be tubbed, was the decision of the student council, passed at a special meeting Monday. Other matters that came before the meeting were the communication of the men of the class of '22 concerning the council's decision on the tug-of-war and the appointment of Lambert DeMers to the council.

Last year the faculty made a ruling prohibiting the use of the tub as a form of punishment. To get this penalty back into use, the council appointed Lambert DeMers, MacPherson Gault and John Patterson to go before the faculty meeting this afternoon with the resolution passed Monday.

The council decided at a meeting last Wednesday that there was no official tug-of-war on March 20 and instructed the committee on class control to appoint a date for another contest. The committee named Wednesday, April 17, as the time and informed the two classes of the decision.

Monday afternoon the men of the

WHY A STUDENT COUNCIL?

The faculty, by their unanimous decision to bar the traditional tub as a part of judicial machinery of the Aber day court, has sapped the very life out of the day. And at the same time they have by their action, shown clearly that they have no faith in the judgment and wisdom of student leaders. The Student Council, under whose jurisdiction such student activities naturally fall, has ceased to become a legislative body. It is rather a collection of figureheads, with their administration outflanked by faculty decision. The Student Council as a deciding factor in student government should die a natural death. Its range of accomplishment, if disbanded, would be quite as extensive as it is now.

We fully appreciate the fact that there is always two sides to a question. We realize the possibility of disagreeable occurrences, which during the time when the University is seeking friends, would occasion undue and harmful notoriety. But we also believe in the wisdom of the students who have been selected and placed in charge of Aber Day. We believe their judgment would master any situation which might arise. Tubbing is not a violent form of punishment; it is just forceful enough to insure proper student participation in the work of Aber Day. No other form of punishment would be as effective. Publishing the names of slackers in the Kaimin would accomplish nothing in the way of punishment.

But the cards are stacked. The committee which has been named to confer with the faculty, can only indicate the stand the Student Council has taken on the question. They can hope for no reconsideration on the part of the faculty. They will merely exercise the machinery of the body which they represent; from then on the strength of their position fails.

The incident two years ago was truly a disagreeable one. The times were unusual, the individual concerned was a strange one, who had yet to acquire the true value of good sportsmanship. If there is a student on the campus, and the tub is only for students, who cannot take the legitimate and deserved punishment, decreed by the court, we are sorry that we have him as member of the student body. We have seen several Aber days. We can appreciate the difference between a tubless Aber Day and the day when there is a tub.

WE THANK YOU

Forty gallons of ice cream on Aber Day! Most of us still have the kid instinct and the only thing that beats the ice cream is the circus. Through the kindness of Mr. William Castberg, manager of the Missoula Creamery, Aber Day workers will have forty gallons of ice cream as a part of the noontime lunch. Mr. Castberg is giving the ice cream as an expression of his good will towards the University and the students. It will be free, not for the asking, because Mr. Castberg did not have to be asked. We thank him and trust that our thanks will do more than express our appreciation.

GETTING BEHIND

If Monday's special convocation is an indication of the interest being taken in the financial plans of the Greater University of Montana, then the place for the spring offensive is right on the campus. Where were the interested students, the anxious faculty? Something more vital than the future of the University kept them away. A full house is a winning combination; we can't win when empty seats outnumber the filled ones. The next convocation called for the purpose of discussing financial plans should mean an overcrowded auditorium.

MASQUERS TRYOUTS TO BE HELD TOMORROW

The Masquers club will hold tryouts tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the University auditorium.

According to Thomas Swearingen, treasurer of the club, eight members will be selected this year. They will be voted upon by the entire club and will be elected to the club by a two-thirds vote.

All students who intend to try out must hand in their names before tomorrow.

CANCEL CONVOCATION FOR WEDNESDAY MORNING

Word that Dr. Charles Moore, director of the American Federation of Arts, who was scheduled to speak before convocation tomorrow morning, would not be able to fulfill the engagement, was received today. As a result, according to Professor H. G. Merriam, head of the committee on public exercises, no convocation will be held Wednesday morning.

Clinton Crews spent the week-end at his home in Anaconda.

PRACTICE TRIAL HELD BY LAW SCHOOL MEN

State vs. Harpole Case Brought to Court in Law Library.

The case of the State vs. Eugene Harpole was brought up at the first practice law court held in the law library last Tuesday evening.

The defendant was alleged to have stolen a ring and $10 from William K. Brown's room at Mrs. Jesse L. Thompson's boarding house on the night of June 15, 1919. This case has been pending for some time. Mr. Fred Engvine, the judge, for some unknown reason had not called the court together before.

The attorney for the defense was Keith Brown. The prosecuting attorney was Elias Mortimer Keeley. The witnesses for the state were Paul Smith, Mrs. Thompson, and John South, an auto salesman. The defendant's attorney entered a plea of not guilty. Harpole testified in his own behalf.

The defendant when asked where he lived and what his business was, answered, "I am the manager of The Leader store, and I live at 500 University avenue."

"Were you ever in jail," asked the prosecuting attorney. "Yes, once in Zion City, Ill., for smoking on the street," answered Harpole.

Judge Angevine declared a recess until next Tuesday evening at 7:30, on account of the lateness of the hour. The practice court holds its meetings every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the basement of the Library building.

ORATORICAL CONTEST MAY BE HELD APRIL 23

The oratorical contest will be held on the evening of April 23, according to Professor H. G. Merriam, if there are four orations of sufficient merit to warrant a contest.

Out of the twelve who entered their names, only five submitted orations. The judges are Phillip S. Brown, an attorney of Missoula; ex-Senator J. M. Dixon and Dean K. W. Jameson. A decision will be rendered on the papers before the end of the week.

UNIVERSITY IS UNABLE TO KEEP SCHOOL NURSE

Because Health Appropriation Exhausted Mrs. LeClaire No Longer Employed.

Because the health appropriation of the State University is exhausted, Mrs. A. F. LeClaire, university nurse, is no longer employed for health inspection. Mrs. LeClaire began daily health inspection before Christmas during the sore throat epidemic when several Craig hall girls were quarantined in the University hospital. Daily inspection has been continued at Craig hall during the winter quarter and until Friday of last week.

The upkeep of the University hospital in the epidemic of influenza made the funds, set aside for health, so low that they are now exhausted and a nurse can no longer be employed.

EATHER PERMITS MEN TO PRACTICE BASEBALL

Whitman Asks for Two Games But Offer Not Accepted Yet; Schedule Is Full.

Baseball practice was again resumed after a week's lay off on account of the cold snap that Missoula has had during the past week. Monday evening Coach Schreiber had his men on the field for a little practice, but at the present time the weather is too cold to let them cut loose. The prospects as to a well developed team are good, but at present the coach refuses to commit himself concerning the team.

Whitman has written and asked for two games, one to be played here and the other to be played in Walla Walla. The schedule is well filled and to accommodate Whitman the team could lose three days, the offer is under consideration at present.

The first game that the Varsity will play will be against Mount St. Charles at Missoula May 1. A return game will be played in Helena May 6.

From Helena the team will journey to Bozeman to play the Farmers here May 7 and 8. The first conference game on the Varsity schedule will be played against Idaho in Missoula, May 13, 14 and 15. May 19 and 20, the Bruins will clash with Washington State at Pullman. From Pullman they will go to Moscow for return series May 21 and 22. Washington State will play here May 27, 28 and 29. The last games of the season will be against the Aggies here on June 4 and 5.

VARSITY VODVIL TRYOUTS BEING HELD AT LIBERTY

The first down-town tryouts for the Varsity Vodvil are being held this afternoon in the Liberty theater. The tryouts will last until 6 o'clock. All the acts entered in the tryouts are being submitted in the final forms and are being reviewed by a group of judges selected by Manager Pat Keeley.

The executive committee of the A. S. U. M., who have taken the responsibility of the vaudeville, will act as censors. According to Pat Keeley, six or seven acts will be chosen for the final show April 16.

University that has done so much for us," she said.

Mac Gault in closing his talk proposed the slogan "get a vote in the spring offensive."

Mr. Leaphart, who has just returned from speaking in several counties in the state on the bond issue and millage tax, said that one of the facts that surprises and impresses the people a great deal is that while the student body at the State University grew from 190 to 800, not a new building was added to accommodate them. He said that the people were willing to vote 15 and 20 millions for irrigation projects and for good roads because they could not see where their money was coming back to them. But in the case of the University bond issue "they don't know what they are getting for their money."

President Sisson closed the convocation by saying that the four institutions of the Greater University of Montana are combining their efforts and "are pulling together" to make the campaign a success.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

A meeting of the Commercial club will be held tomorrow night. All members are urged to be present, as it is a very important meeting.

Kaimin's Final Edition Will Appear Aber Day

The final edition of The Kaimin this week will appear on Thursday, instead of Friday, the date on which it is usually published. The greater part of the paper will be devoted to Aber day happenings and historical sketches of past clean-up days.

Aber days in the past have been featured by special editions in the form of miniature papers, but this year, owing to the fact that Aber day comes but one day before the regular date of publication, The Kaimin staff has decided to publish the full four page edition. The usual campus news will be covered as well as the special news of Aber day activities. An effort will be made to have The Kaimin on the campus during the lunch hour at noon.

Sophomore class met and prepared a communication to be presented at the meeting of the council, held at the same time. The communication was not acted upon. It says,

"In view of the fact that the decision on the tug-of-war was once given to the Sophomores; the Freshmen refused to pull a second time on the traditional spot the same day; the men of the Sophomore class have unanimously decided that the decision of the student council that no tug-of-war was held March 20 is unjust and uncalled for and they refuse to abide by the decision that another contest be held."

Signed by the men of the class of '22.

The third matter that came before the council was the appointment of Lambert DeMers to a seat on the student council. He will fill the vacancy left by Florence Dixon when she assumed the duties of A. S. U. M. president, formerly carried by Joseph Townsend.

Mary Is Martyr; She Is Cooped For Gamboling

Where is Mary? Don't you know? Mary has a new home. No, it isn't as comfortable as the last one. Instead of frolicking on the green and vamping all the stronger sex Mary has been placed in exile. She now has to peek through wooden bars and stamp her dainty feet on yellow straw.

In speaking of Mary about the matter she says, "This surely is a dog's life but I'm bearing up and taking it like a soldier. The University students don't appreciate me. They drag me around anywhere. They have me hid behind the Science hall now so no one can see them butcher me.

Every day they punch something into me and I never even squeak. I heard them say something about red corp-us-als and to leave the white ones out. Then they talked about putting the red ones in a rabbit and I just hate those things. Anyway, I hope it kills them.

And now I feel all wabby and my straw is so hard. All they feed me is slop and it don't taste good. But I just won't kick for I'm a lamb.

THEY ALL FLOP

(With Severe Apologies to Omar) Into the shack of scribes, on work intent,

I hurried, scarcely noticing the scent Of cigarettes, and pipes with cabbage filled,

Nor paused to hear the hare-brained argument.

I took me to the chief-scribe's empty shrine,

And grabbed an Underwood (it wasn't mine)

Knocked out lines and lines of awful verse

As bad as this, and worse—'twas after nine.

But stealing through the hollow walls there came

The voice of sages at their favorite game,

Loud wrangling o'er the slimy Bolshevik,

Or anything that one could call by name.

And as I listened, weaker waxed my vow

Of abstinence. Still, one should not allow

Himself to hear an argue-fest unless

He cares to mingle in the wordy row.

I ups and tears into the other room

Where rock-and-rye philosophy did bloom,

And argued deep into the murk of night,

Nor thought of next day's classes and their gloom,

(I wonder what Omar will think Khayyam)

GRIZZLY SECOND-SACKER LEAVES FOR SPRING WORK

McKain Goes to Eugene, Oregon, to Work Out Kinks and Get Batting Eye.

Neil D. McKain, veteran Grizzly second baseman, left last night for Eugene, Ore., where he will undergo a period of spring training with the Moose Jaw club of the Canadian Western league. McKain was recently signed for the coming season by the representatives of the Canadian league, following his release as a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Canadian Western league is made up of six teams, representing most of the important cities in western Canada. They are fast semi-professional organizations and have furnished many ballplayers to both the American and National leagues.

CLASS IN FOODS STUDY MEETS AT LOCAL SHOP

The foods class of the home economics department visited the Missoula Meat market recently for a lesson on cuts of meat.

To explain the cuts and how they are made, the owner of the market cut up a beef, pork and mutton.

After the lesson the members of the class were the guests of Miss Kate Daum, the instructor, at the Coffee Parlor.

Football Men Called to Training by Coach

Coach B. W. Bierman has issued a call for all men that expect to turn out for football next fall to either don a baseball or a track suit and get out and do a little spring training.

There will be no systemized spring training for football this year and the coach wishes to see the men out and working, so that they will be in shape in the fall. "A little baseball or track, preferably track in the spring will do wonders for a football man," Coach Bierman said.

HARD PAN JAKE

Old Hard Pan Jake from Flathead Lake, with hair on his breast, that's me,

I've pawed this old earth from the day of my birth, with a spirit wild and free;

I've seen the West from her worst to her best, I've played them wide and high,

But I lose my sand, and I lay my hand, when Old Montana's Dry.

What would they say, that roughneck bunch, them wolves that I used to know;

If they read the news that you can't buy booze, in the state where the jug-vine grows?

They'd quickly shoot any damned galoot, that would threaten to stop their rye,

But they're not here, my heart to cheer, when Old Montana's Dry!

Go dig me a grave where the willows wave, by the rim of the dismal swamp;

Where the lizards creep, and the tree toads cheep, and the musical bull-frogs romp,

Throw me and my jug that I used to lug, in a hole and say good-bye,

It's no place here for a pioneer, for Old Montana's Dry!

Kaimin Filing Case To Be Installed Soon

The first Kaimin filing case will be installed in the journalism school within a few days. The plan is to keep files of each Kaimin and have them bound at the end of the year for reference work in the journalism school.

For the past two years there has been no system of filing Kaimin copies and as a result there is no complete file for either year. The filing case has a place for each edition during the year. This will prevent people from taking papers from the files and not returning them.

NATIONAL FOREST DESIRES SERVICE OF THREE MEN

Opportunities Are Offered the Forestry Students of the University.

The forestry school has received requests from the Wasatch national forest in Utah for three men to fill temporary positions with the forest service from June 1 to September 30.
The duties of the men will range from protecting a city water supply and looking after campers to scaling logs and administering sheep range on the reserve. The positions are said to offer good opportunities for administrative experience, and it is probable that some of the forest students will consider taking them.
